FOREWORD

The Association of Alumnae and Former Students was established for the purpose of keeping the old girls in touch with each other and with Sweet Briar. The membership of the Association increases each year, but the scope of the Association's activities, the number of its chapters, the amount of its yearly income, do not always increase. What is the reason for this? Largely because so many of the girls forget. They are interested in Sweet Briar, but more personal and present issues push it into the background. The booklet, therefore, is sent around each year to keep the girls from forgetting. The object of the booklet is to tell you what the Association is doing, what Sweet Briar is doing, what Sweet Briar girls are doing. Read your booklet, keep up with your college, keep up with your college friends. The strength of a college is the strength of her Alumnae. If every old girl keeps up her interest in Sweet Briar the Association will grow and prosper enormously. Be a live, active member. Attend the meetings of your local chapter, be ready to work out new ideas. If there is no chapter in your town, and no State Chapter with which you can affiliate, set about forming one. Write to the President of the Association for suggestions. Above all, pay your dues. The Association and, more important, Sweet Briar itself, needs financial support. It is from the old girls that this support is due. There are fourteen hundred old girls. If each one paid her dues this year, more money would be taken into the Treasury than has ever been taken in a single year, with the exception of 1914-15, when the great "Endowment Fund drive" was being carried on. If you have not already paid your dues, do it now. Send one dollar to Virginia Sandmeyer, 1203 Lovett Boulevard, Houston, Texas. Help Sweet Briar, the Endowment Fund and the Association.

At present the war is obscuring lesser issues. In the great upheaval we are apt to forget all duties which are not war duties. But, girls, in the press of war work and war demands, don't let Sweet Briar slip entirely from your minds. The college must still go on, to a distinguished life and great prosperity; the Endowment Fund is still as much of a necessity as it ever was; the Association must still be maintained and, we hope, broadened and strengthened. Because of the great demands of the war it has been impossible to employ the usual methods of raising money and arousing interest. It has, therefore, become increasingly important that each girl should pay her dues, read her booklet and keep up with the Association in every way possible. Don't be a slacker!

N. B.—Especial attention is called to the treasury system of bookkeeping inaugurated this year. As announced, neither dues nor pledges paid through a chapter are now credited to the chapter, but to the individual girl direct. This will explain the apparently smaller contributions from some chapters. For instance, $21.00 in dues was paid through the Richmond Chapter and the chapter's own contribution was $58.00. Instead of crediting Richmond with $79.00, each girl who paid dues was credited individually and the chapter was credited with the $58.00 it had sent as a result of chapter work. Likewise, the Southern Ohio chapter which is newly organized contributed nothing as a chapter but nearly every one of its members has paid her Association dues. The effort to have every "old girl" pay dues to the Association was quite successful, though not quite one-third of the old girls responded. Two hundred ninety-seven dollars was received in dues this year, while past year only $45.00 was reported. Dues were received this year from 206 girls; past year from 68 (girls paying through chapters having had their money credited to the chapter instead of themselves). A number of girls have paid back dues this year and some have paid in advance. The method of sending annual bills for dues and of crediting money received to chapters and individuals separately is more businesslike than the old method and it is hoped that it will meet with even wider response next year. Through it we have been able to find out many changes in address and marriages.

The total receipts this year fall only about $20.00 short of last year, which is largely due to the war and to the fact that an Alumnae play (at which we have averaged about $100.00 usually) was an impossibility during Finals. We are encouraged by our creditable showing.

MINUTES—1917

June 4, 1917.

The regular annual meeting of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students was held in the chapel. The minutes of the 1916 meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was read and approved. The President explained, for the benefit of the new members, the purchase by the Association of several pieces of fine old lace belonging to the Sweet Briar estate. Mrs. McCall, a relative of Mrs. Williams, had been selling the lace for the benefit of the Endowment Fund. The Association, therefore, had decided to buy what was left of the lace, in order to serve the double purpose of adding to the Endowment Fund and keeping some of the lace in the possession of the college. The question of the disposition of the lace was discussed. Miss Banister moved that a committee be appointed to see that the lace was cleaned, mended and mounted, and sent to Sweet Briar for exhibition. The motion was approved.

The President then read her report for the year. She urged the girls to pay their dues, pointing out that whereas there are fourteen hundred girls who should pay dues and help the Association, only six chapters and two hundred ninety-four girls had done the work and raised the money of the Association during the year.

The question of the future of the Book Shop was discussed. It was explained that after the departure of Miss Benedict it had been an open question as to who should have charge of it. The Board of Trustees thought it should be run by the college, but the Association was opposed to this on the grounds that neither the college nor the Board of Trustees had been instrumental in the establishment and growth of the Book Shop; that first Miss Guion and then Miss Benedict, together with the students and Alumnae had financed and run it and that the Alumnae Association was the logical successor now, that both Miss Guion and Miss Benedict had gone. Also, it was desired to keep the proceeds from the Book Shop entirely for scholarships, rather than have it turned into the general fund. It was moved by Miss Brown that the matter be left to the present Book Shop Committee, which should be instructed to make every effort to keep it in the hands of the Association. The motion was carried.

Miss Pfister asked the Association for a loan of five hundred dollars, or six hundred if possible, for three years, at six per cent interest, for the Social Service Committee of the Y. W. C. A., for the purpose of building a Neighborhood House on Sweet Briar grounds. As it was considered a good investment for the money, it was moved and carried that a loan of six hundred dollars be made.

As there was no further business to be brought before the Association, the election of officers was in order. Margaret Banister was elected President. It was then moved and carried that the election of the other officers be postponed until a special meeting the next day, and the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

FELICIA PATTON, Secretary pro tem.

June 5, 1917.

A special meeting of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students was held in the chapel. The minutes of the annual meeting were read and approved.

The election of officers was then completed. The result of the election was: Grace Martin, Vice-President; Grace MacBain, Secretary; Virginia Sandmeyer, Treasurer; Alice Swain and Anne Schulte, Alumnae members of the Executive Committee; Corina Eaglesfield and Amy Elliott, non-Alumnae members of the Executive Committee.

As there was no further business to be brought before the Association, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

FELICIA PATTON, Secretary pro tem.

LOCAL CHAPTERS

The importance of the local chapters cannot be overestimated. It is through these small groups of girls living near each other that interest in the Association, in the Endowment Fund, and in Sweet Briar is kept alive. It is through these small groups that a great part of the work of the Association must be done. It has been the plan of the Association from the beginning to gradually increase the number of its local chapters and the number of members in each chapter until every girl who has ever been to Sweet Briar has become a part of some chapter, either city or State. But in the last few years the number of chapters has not increased. One year a chapter will come forward, display great energy and resource, and raise a considerable sum of money; the next year this chapter will subside into the limbo of forgotten things. So that though new chapters are sometimes formed, old ones die, and the number of active chapters does not increase. Girls, what can we do about this? How can we not only arouse interest in new chapters but keep up interest in old ones? Think about it for a while, and if you have any suggestions on the subject, write to the President or Secretary of the Association.

Last year there were six chapters which did good work—New York, Oak Park, Indianapolis, Richmond, Lynchburg and Norfolk. The Indianapolis chapter led the race. In March the Indianapolis girls gave a card party which netted over fifty dollars, and not content with this, they had a rummage sale in May which brought in another forty. Oak Park ran Indianapolis a close second, contributing eighty-two at the end of the year. The New York chapter gave a card party which brought in sixty-six dollars. The Richmond girls formed one of the most active chapters last year. This chapter held regular meetings, sent numbers of things to the Christmas bazaar at Sweet Briar, collected dues from all of its members and gave a very successful card party. And, girls, listen to this: The members of the Richmond chapter voluntarily increased their dues to $1.50 as a sure way of putting money into the treasury. That is a suggestion which comes in well at a time when the war has made it almost impossible to give card parties, bazaars and rummage sales. The Lynchburg chapter contributed twenty-seven dollars, and the Norfolk chapter twenty-six, proceeds from two card parties.

We sincerely hope that these chapters will continue their good work in spite of difficulties, and that new ones will be added to the list.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT SWEET BRIAR

Statement by Miss McVea

It is a pleasure to report to the Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar that the session of 1917-18 has opened most favorably. The enrollment is the largest in the history of the institution. Every room is filled to its capacity. Of the 285 students, 175 are in the college. The Freshman Class numbers 90, and the Sophomore and Junior Classes have been enlarged by transfers from other colleges. As usual, the students come from all over the United States. Among the Northern States, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island are represented. From the far West, Colorado, Idaho and Washington; from the middle West, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin; and all the Southern States are represented. The Freshman Class is not only large but unusually well prepared. The class is earnest and studious and have a fine college spirit.

Sweet Briar has been fortunate in securing the services of a number of exceptionally fine professors and instructors. Dr. Catherine Lummis will have the headship of the Latin Department, formerly filled by Miss Nora B. Fraser. Dr. Lummis has had wide experience in teaching, and comes to Sweet Briar from the Latin Department of the University of California. Dr. Lummis did the work for her Doctorate in Latin at Johns Hopkins and at Leland Stanford University. Miss Ella Smith has this year been added to the History Department. Miss Smith is a graduate of the University of Montreal, and has had three years of graduate work at Oxford University, England. Dr. Elizabeth Friench Johnson, of Mannassas, Va., is a welcome addition to the Language Department. Dr. Johnson has spent the last three years at Johns Hopkins University, where she took her Doctor's Degree in June in Germanic Languages. The work in Spanish will be greatly reinforced by the addition of Miss Mary Broughton Pinkerton, of Norfolk, Va., a graduate of Sweet Briar, and a graduate student for the past two years at Johns Hopkins. Miss Elizabeth Johnston, of the Physics Department, is a graduate of Bryn Mawr, and also did the work for her A. M. at Bryn Mawr. Miss Rose Hudson and Miss Mary McGehee have instructorships in English and in Latin, respectively. Miss Hudson is a teacher of wide experience, a graduate of the University of Minnesota. Miss McGehee took honors in Classics at the University of Colorado, and has done graduate work at Columbia, a part of it under the inspiring instruction of Prof. Gilbert Murray. Miss Anna S. Thatcher, who has the English and German, is a graduate of Smith College, a teacher of wide and fine experience. Miss Grace Burr Lewis, assistant in the Physical Education Department, is a graduate of Gilbert Normal School, New York.

WHO'S WHO AT SWEET BRIAR

Marianne Martin is President of the Student Government Association for 1917-18. Her Executive Committee is: Louise Case, Vice-President; Margaret McVey, Secretary; Dorothy Wallace, Treasurer; Katherine Kemp, Gwendolyn Barret and Elizabeth Lowman, House Presidents.

Dorothy Neal is President of the Y. W. C. A.

Cornelia Carroll is serving her second term as President of the Athletic Association.

Charlotte Seaver is President of the Dramatic Association.

Caroline Sharpe is Editor-in-Chief and Delia May Gilmore is Business Manager of the "Briar Patch."

Elanette Sollitt is Editor-in-Chief and Eleanor Smith is Business Manager of the "Magazine."

There are eighteen girls in the present Senior Class, the largest class that has ever graduated from Sweet Briar. Good for old 1918! The class roll is: Vivienne Barkalow, Iloe Bowers, Cornelia Carroll, Louise Case, Corinne Gibbon, Cilla Guggenheimer, Gertrude Kintzing, Elizabeth Lowman, Catherine Marshall, Marianne Martin, Margaret McVey, Jane Pratt, Mary Reed, Charlotte Seaver, Eleanor Smith, Elanette Sollitt, Esther Turk, Ida Walker.

In a patriotic way, Sweet Briar has certainly been doing its "bit." The Athletic Association has bought a $500 Liberty Bond, which, when paid, will go to the Gymnasium Fund. It has also given $200 to the Student's Friendship War Fund.

The Student Government Association has bought a $100 Liberty Bond, which will be turned over to the Endowment Fund when paid.

The College and Academy, through the Y. W. C. A., raised $6,000 for the Students Friendship War Fund. Think of it—an average of over $20 a person!

A Red Cross Auxiliary has been organized, with Ida Walker as chairman, and a teacher from Washington engaged to come down and give lessons in bandage making, surgical dressings, etc. Every Sunday each class makes an offering in church to the Red Cross. And of course everyone knits.

The Founders' Day dance was held as usual, but on account of the war there were no favors, no refreshments and no cards. Meyer-Davis orchestra came down from Washington as usual, though, so of course the dance was a success in spite of wartime economies. The money that was left over from the expenses of the dance was given to the Red Cross, and on Founders' Day afternoon a Leap-year dance was given in the Gym, for which the girls were charged 25 cents, proceeds to go to the Red Cross.

It appears that Dramatic try-outs have become much more complicated affairs than they were in the days when you took your courage in your hand and tremblingly climbed upon the stage to display your ability, or lack of ability, to an awe-inspiring line of "old girls" and Faculty members. Now each aspirant to histrionic distinction first has a conference with a member of the Dramatic Committee who assigns her a part as nearly as possible suited to her. She is supposed to learn and rehearse the part, and then several days after the conference she is given a trial.

Speaking of dramatics, the Seniors gave their first play, "The School for Scandal," the night before Founders' Day, and the first dramatic play, given by the old Merry Jesters and Ripplers, came off the night after Founders' Day.

Lake Day was given up this fall on account of the extreme coldness of the weather, but Athletics is planning to have it at the end of the Senior week in June.

All of the old song books have been sold and the Student Government is now getting out a new book, a much fatter and more complete edition, we hear. When you go back in June, get one.

In spite of the absence of Miss Sparrow, guardian angel of the Current Events Club, that club is continuing in its usual interesting and useful way. Catherine Remp is now President of it. The two speakers who have so far appeared before it are Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale, exponent of the Woman's Movement, and Mr. Leonidas Whipple, professor of journalism at the University of Virginia.

NOTICES

Have you any interest in the present day life of your Alma Mater? Are you anxious to keep up with the changes and improvements on its campus, the increase in attendance, the growth of organization? If your college spirit is not yet dead, buy a 1918 Annual. The "Briar Patch" is the most complete epitome of Sweet Briar for any year. Remember that you are still a part of the life of Sweet Briar. Read the Annual and come more definitely into that life. Send subscriptions ($3.50) to Delia May Gilmore, Business Manager.

Subscriptions to the "Magazine" may be sent to Eleanor Smith, Business Manager. Isabel Wood is Alumnae Editor and will be very grateful for news of any kind from either chapters or individuals.

All chapter secretaries are requested to send a complete list of the names and addresses of their respective chapter members to Grace MacBain, 1921 East Ninety-seventh Street, Cleveland, Ohio, and to Virginia Sandmeyer, 1203 Lovett Boulevard, Houston, Texas.

Chapter treasurers will please send a clear statement of all money forwarded to the Association Treasurer, Virginia Sandmeyer, being especially careful to specify exact amounts in case dues or pledges should be included in the contributions.

If you haven't already paid your dues, do it now. Send one dollar to Virginia Sandmeyer, 1203 Lovett Boulevard, Houston, Texas.

Please send all changes of address, wedding or birth announcements to Grace MacBain, 1921 East Ninety-seventh Street, Cleveland, Ohio. In September every girl was sent a registration card with the request that she fill it out and return it to the Secretary. The purpose of this was to simplify the work of collecting names and addresses and to cut down the number of mistakes. Of the fourteen hundred cards that were sent out, scarcely three hundred have been returned. It is almost impossible to get out a correct list of names and addresses unless the individual girls will help by answering the Association's communications and notifying the right people of all items of interest in regard to themselves.
